

The South African Paint Manufacturing Association and Training Institute

CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH AFRICAN PAINT MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION

EXTRACT FROM THE CONSTITUTION

3. OBJECTIVES

- 3.1 To promote the common interests of its Members and the Industry.
- 3.2 To promote the Industry as a responsible supplier of coatings products and services beneficial to the country.
- 3.3 To promote and protect the interests of the Industry by engaging in constructive dialogue with regulatory and specifying authorities and with any other body or association in allied industries with similar objectives.
- 3.4 To formulate and uphold a code of conduct for Members.
- 3.5 To provide services and guidance to its Members in such areas as:
 - Statistics relating to the Industry and its suppliers
 - Safety, health and environmental regulations and trends
 - Packaging, transportation and waste disposal regulations and trends
 - National and other product specifications
 - Suppliers of raw materials, services and equipment
 - Export promotion schemes and custom tariff classifications
 - Industrial relations
 - Handling of hazardous goods
- 3.6 To induce all eligible employers in the Industry to take up membership of the Association.
- 3.7 To apply or invest the funds of the Association solely to the furthering of the objectives for which it was established. Any profits or gains of the Association, or any part thereof, shall not be distributed to Members or to any other person other than the South African Paint Industry Training Institute (SAPITI).
- 3.8 To foster education and training for the Paint Industry, its suppliers, retailers and contractors and other users of its products by maintaining and managing SAPITI which shall be governed by its own constitution.
- 3.9 To do other lawful things in the interest of the Association or its Members and which are not inconsistent with the objectives or any matter specifically provided for in this Constitution.

To provide any other service and guidance this may from time to time be deemed to be in the interests of Members.