REFLECTIONS ON THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF SAPMA

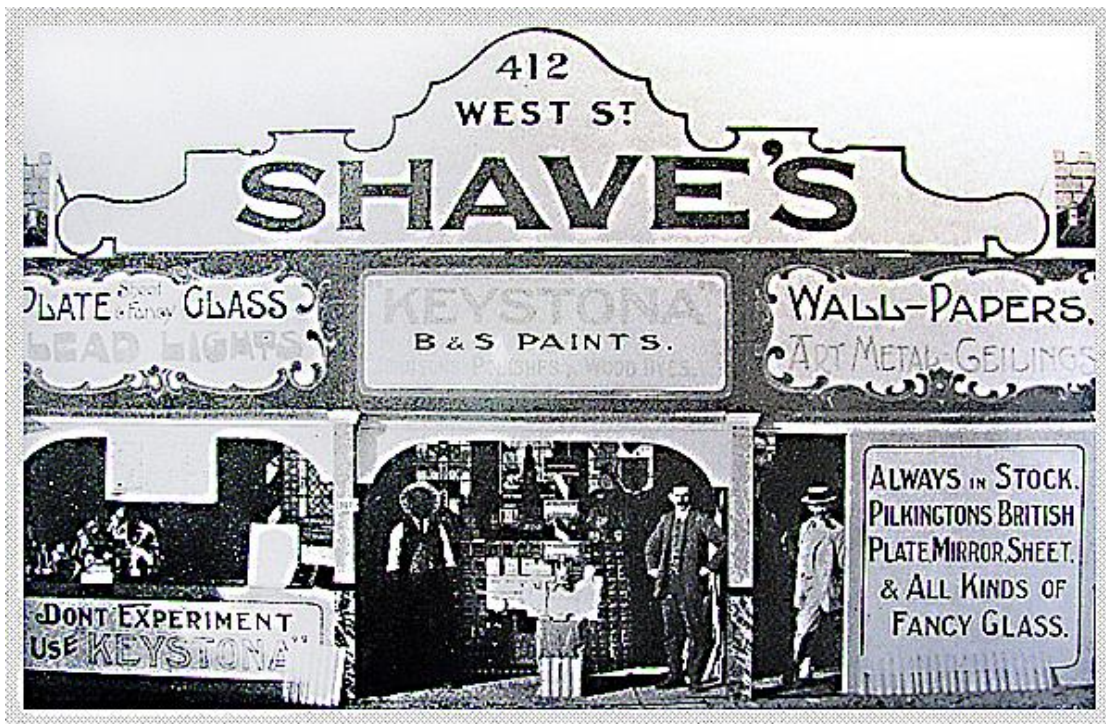

The SA Paint Manufacturing Association (SAPMA) celebrated its 80th anniversary at the recent annual general meeting held in Sandton. During the meeting, Deryck Spence, executive director of SAPMA, took members down memory lane with an audio-visual presentation of SAPMA Through the Years with some historical pictorial mementoes of an association that has played a major role in the success of the local coatings sector for the past eight decades. In the background, Satchmo sang What a Wonderful World.

As SAPMA membership has over the years become more diverse and is no longer confined to producers, the AGM was told that the association has now officially changed its name to THE SOUTH AFRICAN PAINT MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION INCORP. ASSOCIATED INDUSTRIES.

To members, it will remain good old SAPMA.

SAPMA member, Shave Paint & Décor, 118 years ago started operating in this little shop in Durban. Today, the company is still going strong with Shave's Nick Shave serving as chairman of the SAPMA Retail Committee. This historic slide formed part of nostalgic AV presentation at the recent SAPMA AGM.
